Registered Runners of the Tokyo Marathon 2020 residing in People's Republic of China
(update on news released on Feb. 14, 2020)

The announcement made on February 14 to compensate the entry fee for the residence of the People's Republic of China to defer their entry to 2021 event has changed according to the final decision.

The Tokyo Marathon 2020 will only be held for the elites and the wheelchair elites, and therefore, the condition to defer the entry shall be equal for all registered runners.

The entry fee will be required for all runners to defer their entry to the 2021 event.

We apologize for any inconvenience this change may cause, but we sincerely request for the understanding and cooperation.
